Providing Care for Medically Complex Children & Youth: Tips & Tricks

June 9, 2021 · 12:00-1:15 pm

Presented by:

Jan McGonagle, MD

Do you need more tools in your toolbox to care for children and youth with medical complexity and developmental differences?

Join this provider-to-provider opportunity with Dr. Jan McGonagle as she shares the lessons she has learned in her 25 years of caring for this population of patients. Dr. McGonagle will use cases to demonstrate how she organizes and approaches patients from a clinical perspective, and will highlight clinical tools and resources that support her in this work.

Goals:

Increase physician comfort, confidence and competence regarding this subpopulation of children and youth with special health care needs.

Optimize care for both the physician and the patient, while increasing resiliency and quality of life for this vulnerable population.

About the Presenter:

Jan McGonagle, MD, is a board certified developmental behavioral pediatrician at Amoskeag Health in Manchester New Hampshire. She graduated from William Smith College in Geneva New York and received her medical degree from the State University of New York in Buffalo. She completed her pediatric residency at the University of Colorado with a focus on pediatric rehabilitation. She worked as a general pediatrician at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center and served as the medical director at Cedarcrest before specializing in developmental behavioral pediatrics in 2009.

Dr. McGonagle has worked at Amoskeag Health, since 2000. Her clinical work focuses on community-based care for medically complex children. She is a physician in several Special Medical Services Programs including Nutrition, Feeding, and Swallowing, Child Development, and Complex Care Network.
